ESTHER VEERMAN

Esther Veerman, born 1968, studied Theology and a year of Conservatory. From 2000 - 2005 she was minister in Bouwershaven the Netherlands and wrote the Artbook Nooit meer kwijt 2006.

Esther's art portrays a strong engagement with domestic and sexual abuse.

Since 1983, Esther has drawn and painted what lives inside her. Her memories and feelings seek their way out into the world. For her Colour is like feeling and form like expression. What cannot be expressed in words is said through her art. Esther has been founder of the Foundation Art out of Violence since 2011.
