

Bloody shame:

It's a shame to kill those beautiful animals,
just because of their skin.

You people can well be compared with criminals,
what you're doing is so wrong, it's a sin.

Please stop it, and stop it now,
you've already done so much harm.

The hearts of the friends of all animals
are filled with sorrow.
What will our children think of these acts tomorrow.

It's so much better to see these wonderful animals alive and playing in nature.
Than to wear their skin as a coat to cover
